Meeting of the Emperors.

NEW YORK August 31 —The London Telegraph of [illegible] has the following: Being now permitted to write on the approaching interview between the three Emperors the Russian press generally draws hopeful and peaceful auguries from the event [illegible] however hints that the Slavonian and Eastern questions will be brought on the tapis and Russia though not greedy of conquest must see his Christian subjects of the Porte protected from persecution and oppression and that an open declaration to that effect may be made Papal encroachment in Germany and [illegible] will afford points of discussion and combination

The [illegible] paper says the Emperor Napoleon has frankly indicated his views in regard to the forthcoming interview of the three Emperors at Berlin on the present condition and prospects of France and other topics of the day Referring to the Imperial assemblage his majesty did not consider it involved any immediate threat or danger to the peace of Europe but did not conceal his belief that more than a compliment was intended at the meeting and when each power had served its own immediate purpose by the help of its neighbor s partnership it would be dissolved Napoleon dwelt somewhat severely on the protection of views of Thiers and on his lavish expenditure on the army which he contrasted keenly with his parsimonious views while in opposition under the Empire and pretty plainly hinted that despite the President s words his mind was bent on war

A Walla Walla correspondent of the Farmer under date of August 21st says As our harvest is now nearly all in the granary I see that the farmers are better satisfied with the results of their yield Prices for wheat are very low and many farmers are feeding hogs as a means of converting to better profits The yield, I think of our wheat crop has been about an average of 25 bushels although we frequently hear of from 40 to 60 as being threshed

Chief Engineer W Milnor Roberts who has recently (July 15 1872) completed a tour of inspection along the line of the Northern Pacific Railroad in Minnesota and as far west as the valley of Heart river in Western Dakota writes as follows The valleys of the Cheyenne and the James where our line crosses are particularly lovely having abundant water trees enough to relieve the eye and a rich soil The Missouri is a noble river where the road strikes it—wide and deep with a swift current and heavily wooded along its shores and islands It is navigable for a thousand miles above to Fort Benton and quite a number of large steamers heavily laden with merchandise for Montana had recently passed up. It is the opinion of an experienced Missouri river steamboat man, that on the completion of the Northern Pacific road to the Missouri the business will be done over this road not merely to all points on the river above but also to points several hundred miles below

There is a woman in Idaho who is so jealous of her husband that she won t allow him to carry a pocket handkerchief for fear he will carry on a handkerchief flirtation with some of the girls He doesn t mind the handkerchief much, but it is hard on his coat sleeve

Startling Indian Rumor

T[illegible] Aug 31 —E P Stanley who arrived here from Fort Laramie this evening tells a startling story A band of two hundred Arapahoes under Little Raven attacked a Government train of fifty six mule teams loaded with supplies for Fort Lyons. He says the teams were attacked while mired in the sand of Dry Creek Valley Fifteen of the men in charge were killed and as many more are missing supposed to have been carried off captives The train was robbed of everything portable and then burned Stanley says he was with an escort of the train which consisted of a hundred men of the Sixth Cavalry, under Lieu McFarland but which being nine miles in the rear of the train, came up only in time to see the Indians disappearing

The Burning of the Bienville—Full Particulars

HAVANA, August 31 —The following is the report of Capt Maury of the loss of the steamship Bienville: We left New York August 10th for Aspinwall When in latitude 25° 30 , longitude 74° 15 at 3 30 A. M on the morning of the 15th a fire was discovered among the cargo Steam and water were at once turned on but the steam pumps after a few revolutions broke down The Captain then ordered the hatches battened down hoping to smother the fire At the same time fire extinguishers were used between decks and steam kept on The fire gained, however, and fearing an explosion from powder stored in the hold if he remained by the ship any longer he ordered six boats launched, and the passengers and crew began to embark At 7 30 Capt Maury was forced to leave the ship, being the last one on board One of the boats capsized after leaving the ship, and from seven to ten persons, including two women, were drowned After sunrise a fresh breeze sprung up and the capsized boat was righted and reached Cat Island in safety The other boats, except one, reached Eleuthera Island, a distance of 150 miles from the scene of the disaster The missing boat has not yet been heard from, but it is supposed has been picked up by a passing vessel a boat was seen adrift near Eleuthera Island with life preservers in it. One of the boats in trying to land at Eleuthera Island capsized and nine persons were drowned, including Mrs Brander and her three children At 1.30 P M. the Bienville exploded and immediately sunk When the fire was first discovered it was supposed to be in the forehold, where there was a large amount of powder and cargo, but it proved to be between decks The passengers and crew lost all their baggage and saved nothing except the clothes they had on. Capt Maury reports that the people of Nassau treated the shipwrecked kindly and ministered to their wants Vice Consul Saunders cared for the seamen, Anna Brahn, one of the rescued, became insane and was left at Eleuthera because she could not be found when the party left for Nassau The steamer Annie and schooner Danby were dispatched by the American Consul to search for the missing boat. Out of 127 persons on board 34 are unaccounted for, including nine lost at Eleuthera besides six bodies recovered and buried at Jamespoint The schooner William McGee took 34 survivors to Baltimore on the 24th Subscriptions were started at Nassau in aid of the sufferers

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 1 —It was rumored this morning that a fearful murder had been committed in the southern part of the city The facts as far as can be ascertained are these Mrs Annie Brown, wife of Capt James Brown a sea captain who has commenced boarding at No 38 Natoma street yesterday was attacked during the day with delirium tremens, and in the afternoon called for a knife saying she wished to kill herself In the night she made her escape from her room in her night dress and friends were hunting for her all night and this morning she was found lying dead on the floor of the laboratory in the rear of the drug store on the corner of Second and Howard streets Blood was oozing from her ears, as if she had received a crushing blow on the head, and there were marks on the throat and mouth which led to the suspicion that she had been murdered The clerk who usually sleeps there did not do so last night. On examination it was found that the back door had been broken in and it is now believed that she broke in there herself being familiar with the premises from having roomed above for some years and died either from the effects of a fall or from something which she may have swallowed in the drug store The bottles were disturbed as if she had been hunting for some poison The Coroner will make a full investigation

Contrasted Lives

We sympathize with the [illegible] about the report that Senator Wilson was a Know Nothing. The papers [illegible] are mostly filled with expressions [illegible] about it. [illegible] he was ever a member of that organization [illegible] war. Nor does it make much difference. It is well associated with it there is no probability that he thought it right to take up for [illegible] any organization that opposed the Democracy. But Wilson is not a man to proscribe any person on account of race or color. In the Massachusetts Constitutional Convention in 1853 he said "I care nothing about the place where a man was born. I do object to inserting anything in this Constitution which will make any distinction under any circumstances whatever between men of any race or men and I would myself recognize men of every race, clime and country upon the ground of perfect equality." These words are on record in the reports of the Convention. They show that Wilson never had any sympathy with proscription. It is foreign to his nature. Very different in this respect is Horace Greeley. Times without number he has said that New York city was dominated by a foreign Catholic mob, and has hurled his choicest epithets at the foreign scum which has given the Democratic party in that city its vast majorities. Moreover he encouraged the Know Nothing organizations and as the files of the New York Express (now one of his supporters) show he was present at and addressed a Know Nothing meeting at a town in the interior of the State of New York in the year 1855. The New York Times recently furnished proof of this fact. The idea of calling Henry Wilson a Proscriptionist, and accepting Horace Greeley—the Greeley whose whole life has been devoted to fierce invective against all opponents and bitter denunciation of every man, class or party that has disagreed with him,—will do for a party which can change its principles with such ready facility as the Democracy have shown. Greeley's whole career has been one of intolerance, of defamation, and of proscription of all opponents, Wilson's career has been one of moderation, yet of firmness and of constant devotion to the principle of all rights for all.

A Distinction

Side shows in politics are of course very reprehensible and disreputable. All the Greeley papers are stigmatizing by opprobrious epithets the "side show" at Louisville. They hold that show to be a most unjustifiable proceeding, and insist that it should receive no encouragement nor even respectful treatment. They believe that side shows are the work of soreheads who have never been appreciated in their own party, and who have set a higher value on themselves than their party has conceded to them. They are selfish knaves, resentful disorganizers and blatant mountebanks. Nobody should tolerate them. But it makes ever so much difference in this as in many other cases, whose ox is gored. When the side show at Cincinnati was organized, our now stricken brethren thought the side show in politics was just the thing. Only patriots attended on such occasions. There the unbought voice of the people declared itself, free from the insolence of party tyranny or the dictation of intriguing knaves. But a side show at Louisville stands on very different moral grounds from a side show at Cincinnati. It is sinful to attend the one; it was glorious and beatific to attend the other. For Republicans to encourage the performance at Louisville is an unpardonable act, but it was altogether right for Democrats to encourage the one at Cincinnati. For Cincinnati there is one law, for Louisville another. Our sorrowing Democratic brethren know how to make the distinction.

Reduction of the Debt

The Herald tells us that "the Grantites brag so much about paying off the national debt that it has set some persons to work to investigate the subject, so as to see how these matters stand. The New York Sun, as the result of these investigations proves the fact that the debt was paid off at a much more rapid rate under the administration of the much abused Andy Johnson than under Grant. Mr McCullough, Secretary of the Treasury under Johnson, in his report submitted in December, 1868, shows that the debt had been reduced in three years and seven months over $470,000 000. This rate of decrease exceeds the rate under Grant by about $2 000 000.

We have not closely examined the records to see whether this statement by the Sun regarding the reduction of the debt under Johnson is correct or not. But admit for the present that the rate of decrease under Johnson exceeded that under Grant by $2 000 000 a month. Then the fact remains that the taxes collected under Johnson exceeded those collected under Grant by more than $10,000,000 a month. Since Grant became President, taxes have been repealed to the extent of more than one hundred millions of dollars per annum. This shows how these matters stand.

Charles O Conor's position has been much canvassed during the last fortnight. It is generally conceded at the East that he favors the Louisville movement. A New York Herald interviewer reports (August 19th) that the most he could get out of O Conor was an emphatic declaration that if the Louisville Convention puts a Straight Democratic ticket in the field upon a true Democratic platform he would vote for that ticket. To the blunt question would he accept the nomination? O Conor refused a direct answer. But the interviewer left him "strongly impressed with the belief that O'Conor is in favor of the course pursued by the promoters of the Louisville Convention, and furthermore that, if nominated, he would run just as far and as fast as his political legs will carry him on the road to the White House.

Our neighbor the Catholic Sentinel complains that the New York Times slanders and defames the Catholic Church and attacks the Catholic faith. Our neighbor is surely mistaken in this. For a long period we have read that paper seven times a week and we have seen nothing of the kind in it. The Times has always been by far more just and tolerant than the Tribune, which latter paper until its editor became a candidate for the Presidency, was notorious for its severe reflections upon the Catholic Church and upon what it was pleased to consider that Church's political tendencies.

Fortunate California! She is rid of the betting nuisance, so common in election times. The penal code of that State makes betting on elections a misdemeanor, and subjects the offender to punishment by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding [illegible] months or a fine not exceeding [illegible] or by both.

To-morrow, Tuesday, the Straight Democratic Convention will assemble at Louisville. Delegates from nearly all the States will be in attendance. The New York delegation [illegible] started for Louisville on Saturday.

[illegible] Democratic State Central Committee will meet in this city. It is [illegible] will [illegible] the [illegible] meeting [illegible] and [illegible] having [illegible] ges thereof.

The San Francisco [illegible] of August 25th says that at a meeting of straight Democrats in that city a full delegation for Louisville was chosen. Proxies were sent to [illegible].

The house of W W Hale, of Antelope, Jackson county, was burned to the ground last Thursday, 20th ult , and everything therein consumed. Loss, $2 000.

Salem is expecting lively times from now until the session of the Legislature closes. The town is preparing for visitors and will expect them to "shell out" liberally.

Horace Spencer had three fingers shot off and his hand otherwise badly wounded by the accidental discharge of one barrel of a shotgun which he was loading last Friday morning.

The McKenzie Road Company have their road passable for wagons over the lava beds of Lost Creek and into the center of the favorite huckleberry fields of the Warm Spring Indians.

C P Burkhart, a farmer of Linn county, in the Farmer intimates as his prediction that the header as a harvesting machine will soon be numbered among the things of the past in Oregon.

On Friday the 23d inst, Mr B C Wallace, while engaged in running a threshing machine near Cottage Grove, had his right leg crushed so that it had to be amputated, on Saturday, just below the knee.

The artesian well which was begun in Jacksonville some time ago, has reached the depth of 170 feet, but the water won't come to the surface. Some fine specimens of copper, however, have been taken from the hole.

Gen. Odell has engaged a room in Underwood & Co's new brick building for the use of the Grant and Wilson Club, where the various papers published in this State and other interesting reading matter will be found.

C W Pettyjohn, of Marion county, who a few weeks since was pronounced insane and sent to the Asylum at East Portland, has so far recovered as to be discharged from the institution and has returned to his home near Salem.

From the Mountaineer of the 31st ult. A little daughter of Mr John Thompson, of Dalles City, aged about three years, accidentally fell into a bucket of hot water prepared to wash the floor with on Wednesday at noon and was so terribly scalded that she died on Thursday.

The eight sheep belonging to John Minto of Marion county, which were killed by the dogs, were his choicest, the very ones he intended for exhibition at the State Fair. One of them had taken premiums to the amount of $100 and must have been a favorite animal. The eight were worth $200.

The Mountaineer in speaking of the trial and conviction of Tompkins and others for robbing the mail, says, "now that the trial is over and the excitement consequent thereto, many good quiet thinking people of our county are yet in doubt as to these being the persons who robbed the mail." There appears to be a mystery somewhere.

The Eugene Guard says "The crops of Lane county are generally good. E W Rhea, who lives about eight miles below Eugene on the river road gives the following as his average. Barley, 46 bushels to the acre; oats, 40 and wheat 32. Mr Bushnell, in the same locality, harvest 100 acres of wheat that averaged 35 bushels. Mr Blachley's crop we are informed, averaged 40 bushels.

From the State Journal. Last Wednesday one of the workmen on Mr Jennings' new building at Eugene, engaged in carrying brick up a ladder to the masons slipped and fell from near the top of the house—man, hod, ladder and all coming to the sidewalk together. People rushed to his assistance, expecting to find him badly bruised and were surprised to see him get up and go about his work as though nothing had happened.

The Eugene Journal says "We have reliable information that in Coast Fork precinct, in that county where there were upwards of forty Democratic votes cast last June, there are not now more than half a dozen Greeley Democrats. Nearly all are waiting to hear from Louisville and will support its candidate if a nomination is made. Should there not be any other candidate in the field some will not vote at all, and others will vote for Grant in preference to Greeley.

The Louisville Straights

The topic of the present week will be the Louisville Convention. The following interesting extract relative to the movement is from an article that appeared in the New York Herald on the 21st of August.

The letter of our Louisville correspondent published to day, gives an interesting account of an interview with Colonel Blanton Duncan the moving spirit of the straight out Bourbon Convention about to be held at Louisville for the nomination of Charles O Conor as the candidate of the still unterrified Democracy for President of the United States and for the adoption of a platform on which all who are unwilling to vote for the Liberal Republican candidate can plant themselves and take part in the contest. Our correspondent finds Col Duncan full of energy and hope, loaded down with correspondence from old line Democrats and strong in the faith that his pet Convention is going to be a great success. The responses pouring in from all States, and the earnest tone of the letters, many of which were examined by our correspondent, convince him that a strong undercurrent is running in favor of the Louisville movement that it is not being laughed at by the whole people.

C W Todd, character passed collections, $11 50.

J Harer, not present represented by his P E character passed.

L Olmstead was recommended as a suitable person to be admitted to membership in the Oregon Annual Conference. Motion was made to admit.

Question by S Matthew. Does the brother use tobacco? Last year the Conference had voted to admit none but antitobacconists. The brother had retired and no one being sufficiently acquainted with his habits the question was not answered. Question of admission called for.

Matthew objected.

Elder De Vore thought him to be a man of good taste and would risk the tobacco part.

By a unanimous vote Matthew was appointed a committee to ascertain the private habits of the brother in this particular. He retired whereupon several members of the Conference made speeches.

I D Driver had once been a partaker of the filthy weed was made to believe it a sinful practice and by the help of God succeeded in breaking loose from the pernicious habit. Was thankful that he had done so. He'd gained 100 pounds avoirdupois.

Some brother, small in stature arose and argued that it was not a convenience to carry so much surplus flesh.

At this juncture brother Matthew returned and reported that he had sought diligently but that he was unable to find brother Olmstead. The matter was then laid on the table for the time being.

I D Witten, Samuel R Raymond, John Boswell and William McPheters were elected to deacon's orders.

IN MEMORIAM

The committee on memoirs Rev L J Powell chairman, presented a short history of the life of Rev J G Deardorff, who had died during the past year.

A F Waller J L Parrish and C W Shaw a committee to procure better protection for camp meetings.

L M Nickerson N Doane and L T Woodward were appointed a committee on Freedmen.

The Conference Board of Stewards were instructed to so classify the Conference claimants as to discriminate in favor of those whose financial necessities are greatest.

VISIT TO THE STATE PENITENTIARY

A letter from the Superintendent of the Oregon Penitentiary to the Conference inviting them to visit the prison was read, and G W Izer and C W Shaw were appointed to reply to the same.

The Conference then adjourned to meet Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Your reporter would correct a mistake occurring in the report of the proceedings of the first day. Rev H K Hines was elected Secretary—not Rev Clark Smith, as we had it. The latter was elected Assistant Secretary.

The Bish[illegible] headed the procession, who repeating in [illegible] the 79th Psalm, returned to the [illegible] When all were seated the Bishop made a [illegible] quent and appropriate remarks. "Jerusa[illegible] Glorious" was next sung. Mr Effinger [illegible] troduced to the audience by the Bishop[illegible] gentleman came forward and delivered [illegible] beautiful and touching address of about [illegible] minutes in length. Rev. Mr Burton w[illegible] called and responded in his usual pleasing [illegible] quent manner. The exercises were then co[illegible] by chanting the grand old hymn Gloria [illegible] as a concluding prayer and benediction [illegible] Bishop, after which the audience adjourne[illegible] dining room of the school, and partook of [illegible] ful lunch spread for the occasion by dir[illegible] the courteous and hospitable teachers of th[illegible] tution, Profs Laing and Burton. Work, w[illegible] will be commenced at once on the new [illegible] which will be ready for occupancy by [illegible] proaching Winter.

[illegible] TO BE CORRECTED—We have been [illegible] by a member of the Catholic Church to [illegible] the statement in the Herald of last Saturd[illegible] ing to the effect that Mrs Duniway, in he[illegible] at Friday morning "made a blasphem[illegible] on to the religion of Mr Greeley's dau[illegible] To those who heard Mrs D the correctio[illegible] necessary as well as to those who know [illegible] abandon with which the gentleman who [illegible] that spec in for the Herald perverts and [illegible] speaker's language whenever it suits his [illegible] to do so. There was nothing in the sp[illegible] referred to which could in any way be take[illegible] a slur on the religion of Mr Greeley's d[illegible] any one else and all that was said [illegible] subject was a repetition of a statement [illegible] Greeley himself to the speaker in an [illegible] which they had in New York. MONDAY MORNING SEPTEMBER 2 1872

GRAVE [illegible] CITIZEN —Saturday we paid a visit to the grave of Captain John H Couch in the Lone Fir Cemetery, which spot has but a few days ago been conspicuously marked by the erection of a costly and handsome monument, by the surviving members of the family The monument is a most fitting and appropriate tribute to the memory of the departed The spot in which reposes all that is mortal of the dead is situated near the northern side of the Cemetery about midway between the eastern and western limits and occupies a commanding point The place can be seen without difficulty from almost any point within the enclosure except when screened by intervening underbrush The lot in which Captain Couch is interred is about twenty five feet square The enclosure is surrounded by a cut stone wall two feet high, with nicely polished coping on the top of the wall On the north side of the enclosure is an opening, with stone steps leading to the enclosure which is raised above the level of the adjacent ground On each side of the steps is an octagonal shaped pier stone both of which is surmounted with a moulded cap In the exact center of the enclosure is the monument six feet square at the foundation The foundation commences with two steps or pedestals composed of blocks of Oregon granite, finely polished and so accurately joined together as to appear one solid piece On these steps rests the largest stone in the structure This block is of the same material as the foundation on which it reposes It is about four feet square On the north side of this block—fronting the entrance of the enclosure—is carved an anchor, well trimmed and projecting out from the surface of the stone Immediately above this granite block is a sculptured base of fine Italian marble, with the family name—COUCH—in raised letters on the same side and above the carved anchor before mentioned Above the family name is placed the die or inscription block, on which is carved the following "John H Couch, born in Newburyport, Massachusetts, February 21st, 1811, died January 19th, 1870" Above the inscription on this block is carved a Masonic emblem —the keystone of an arch—in the center of which are two blocks and tackling and a coil of ropes emblematical of the avocation of the deceased at the time he became a member of that order On the dial block rests the cap of the die block, a large stone, octagonal shaped, with a drooping anchor chain extending all around it. The chain is broken on the front side of the monument, and one of the links of the cable hangs down so that the anchor several feet below, appears to have been severed from the broken link and fallen away This symbol is beautiful and expressive of the idea intended to be conveyed—that death had broken the first link in the family relations and the main stay, support and hope had been cast off The remaining portion of the monument consists of a handsomely polished obelisk or column about ten feet high surmounted with a moulded cap From the base to the apex the monument is over seventeen feet in hight, and is principally made of pure white Italian marble. In dimensions, symmetry of proportion, general effect and elegant workmanship, it far surpasses any monument in the State, or even north of San Francisco The work was executed by Mr. William Young of this city, and the design is purely of his own invention As a piece of sculpture, it is a credit to the artist who chiseled it, and a most fitting monument to designate the spot where rests one of Oregon's pioneers, and an old, adopted and honored son.

BREAKING GROUND —The ceremonies of formally breaking the earth for the foundation of the new addition to be constructed to the present edifice of the Bishop Scott Grammar School took place last Saturday at 5 o'clock, P.M. A large number of persons participated in the ceremonies, which were interestingly impressive throughout. The procession formed in the large chapel room of the building, and marched to the spot to the north of the wing extending from the main building in the following order the Bishop, Profs. Laing and Burton, the clergy to the number of some twelve or fifteen, the laity, ladies and teachers of St Helen's Hall, pupils, etc. The 122d psalm was chanted as the procession moved to the ground Arriving there, the procession halted. A short talk was delivered by Bishop Morris, followed by a prayer. At its conclusion the Bishop took the spade from the hands of the architect, Mr A H Ja[illegible], and after solemnly dedicating the future building to the purposes of education and Christian culture, he formally broke ground. The procession filed past, each one in turn shoveling up a few spadefuls of earth. The Bishop then [illegible] the procession, who repeating in unison the 29th Psalm, returned to the chapel. When all were seated the Bishop made a few eloquent and appropriate remarks "Jerusalem the Glorious" was next sung Mr Effinger was introduced to the audience by the Bishop, which gentleman came forward and delivered a most beautiful and touching address of about fifteen minutes in length Rev. Mr. Burton was next called and responded in his usual pleasing and eloquent manner The exercises were then concluded by chanting the grand old hymn Gloria in Excelsis, a concluding prayer and benediction by the Bishop, after which the audience adjourned to the [illegible] room of the school, and partook of a bountiful lunch spread for the occasion by direction of the courteous and hospitable teachers of the institution, Profs Laing and Burton Work, we learn, will be commenced at once on the new building, which will be ready for occupancy by the approach of Winter.

SHOULD BE CORRECTED —We have been requested by a member of the Catholic Church to correct the statement in the Herald of last Saturday morning, to the effect that Mrs. Duniway, in her speech last Friday morning "made a blasphemous allusion to the religion of Mr Greeley's daughters" To those who heard Mrs D the correction is unnecessary, as well as to those who know the utter [illegible] with which the gentleman who reported that speech for the Herald perverts and falsifies a [illegible]'s language whenever it suits his purposes to do so There was nothing in the speech referred to which could in any way be taken as even a slur at the religion of Mr. Greeley's daughters or any one else, and all that was said on that subject was a repetition of a statement made by [illegible] himself to the speaker in an interview which they had in New York That statement was in Mr G's own words "My oldest daughter is a Catholic, and had rather confess to a priest than not a bit of it," and was made in answer to the question put by Mrs Duniway in this language "Mr. Greeley, haven't your daughters any [illegible] aspirations?" What "blasphemous allusion" our contemporary can find in that is certainly beyond the comprehension of any one who heard it.

FOR THIS PORT —The steamship Ajax sailed Saturday from San Francisco for this port with the following passengers Hon S J Field, B B Graham, J Lowenburg, Mrs J R Farrish and child, B B Bremer, T C Hoppin, J P LeCount L Brecks and wife, Miss C Hemenson Mrs [illegible] H S Licker, Chas Clarke, G C Farnham Miss M J Henderson, Dr G H Sowers and wife P A Eddy Mrs J H Kitton and two children, Miss Soule Miss A Fuck, Miss L M Hubbard, J H Hayward M S Griswold and wife M Lipps and wife Mrs Stewart, L Portier, T Pierry, Judge C C Murdock C Kohn, Mrs May Mrs J H H Imes, J Mayer, J M Allen, O J Finley, Miss C C Wass, Mrs R F Blanchard Rev W C Chattin and family, Mrs J B Stockwell, J P Sheffield, L Reinhart, Miss J Forbes, Mrs M A Burroughs and daughter, Mrs Eddy, Mrs Spaulding and two children Mrs Rapler, Miss E Anderson, W H Thomas, J F Perkins, A France and wife, M Crosbie and wife, M Cox h Barrews, Jas H Vinson

THEATRICAL TALENT —By the steamer Ajax, now on the way to this port, there will arrive quite a histrionic array of talent Manager Waldron has sent to San Francisco for a number of [illegible] and talented artists, who will appear at Oro Fino Theater on the opening of the new season soon to be inaugurated The following new names will be added to the list composing the [illegible] theatrical company James H Vinson, Mr and Mrs W C Crosbie, Samuel Piercy, Mr and Mrs Lipps, Mrs C F Stewart and R H Cox. Several of these names are familiar to this public, having appeared on the stage at different times. The season will be inaugurated on next Saturday night, on which occasion the great tragedy of Macbeth will be produced With the addition of the 'new stock' we venture to say the season will open with as strong a company as have yet appeared before a Portland audience

WAREHOUSES FOR GRAIN —The following suggestions from the Willamette Farmer are commended to the attention of our merchants and capitalists. The Farmer says "It is time that our commerce with the world should be facilitated by the construction of spacious and convenient warehouses and elevators to be placed at tide-water with capacity equal to the increasing products of our State That is a matter we respectfully commend to the attention of the Portland merchants whose fortunes have been built up by the interior trade. If Portland wishes to maintain its commercial prestige, and retain its profitable trade there should be a spirit of enterprise manifested there broad enough for the trade of the country to rest upon, and liberal enough to insure that the toiling producer will be not only accommodated but at a rate somewhat reasonable

NEGLECT APPARENT —One cannot take a stroll through Lone Fir Cemetery without being painfully impressed with the many evidences of neglect and decay which are apparent almost every side It is true that in many family lots in which are deposited the remains of one or more members are marked with the permanent and respected tribute of perennial marble or are handsomely enclosed with iron railing and neatly laid out But there are many very many nameless graves unmarked by even the ordinary head and foot board or if once so designated the perishable wood has decayed and fallen away One often finds himself unconsciously treading over the last resting place of such unknown and forgotten sleepers in working his way through and over the rank profusion of weeds and brambles which have grown and thrived unmolested for years Many of the graves which are marked by stone slabs and tombs have been so long neglected that the marble has lost its original purity of appearance, and looks stained and dingy by the water dripping from the branches overhead or from the weeds and grass We observed around a number of graves young fir trees which were transplanted years ago, and are now spreading their boughs wide and towering far in the air The growth of such trees is so rapid that they greatly obscure the view, destroy the effect of the plat, and in the course of a few years more will uproot monuments near the young trunks, and disturb the repose of the dead by the vigorous growth and spread of the roots Such trees ought to be removed at once It would seem that as this cemetery is to become the City of the Dead for Portland for many years to come, more care, taste, and forethought ought to be displayed in improving the lots, and not suffering such evidences of gross neglect to exist undisturbed

TO EQUALIZE TAXES —The County Court will convene this morning for the transaction of county business Prominent among the duties of the Court will be the examination of the assessment rolls for 1872 More properly this business belongs to the Board of Equalization, consisting of the County Clerk, Judge and Assessor Owing to unavoidable circumstances—the absence of one of the Board—the rolls were not examined last week, notwithstanding the Board met and adjourned several times Last Friday the full Board met, but were unable for want of time to examine properly into the matter In this contingency the General Laws of the State provide that this examination and equalization of the taxes, shall pass over into the hands of the County Court The section referred to says "Said Board of Equalization shall continue their sitting from day to day until the examination and correction of the assessment rolls, as provided in this act, shall be completed but if such an examination and correction be not completed within the week in which said Board is required to meet, it shall be the duty of the County Court, at its next term thereafter, sitting to transact county business, to complete such examination and correction, in the same manner and with like effect as the Board of Equalization is required to do" As the Board have taken no action in the premises, the assessment rolls will pass into the hands of the Court It might be well for all persons who are convinced that they have been overtaxed to appear before the Court and ask for a reduction to be made This is the only means to obtain redress, and one of the principal reasons for the official examination of the rolls is to afford every tax payer an opportunity to be heard, to avoid irregular taxation and administer justice to all

PROSPECTIVE HOMICIDE.—The prospects for a first class homicide item were extremely flattering for a few minutes last evening on Front street Several men were engaged in an animated conversation The members composing the interesting group were laboring under "spiritual influence," and as the subject became more lively, it grew correspondingly warm, and at length ended as all drunken debates do—in a street brawl. One fellow in particular swore a mild oath, and said he would whip his opponent. He went for his man, and that man most naturally went for his revolver. The weapon was cocked, and would have been discharged in another instant, if parties had not interfered No policemen being spectators to the "side show," the belligerents were led off in opposite directions by friends, and there was no effusion of blood, although prospects looked brilliant in that direction for a moment.

KNIFE FOUND.—The police are searching diligently for evidence in the case of the Indians, Jim and Narcess, who are thought to be principals or accessories in the murder of Bovee. The canoe of Bovee was found Saturday just below the new saw mill moored to the bank. On looking closely a small butcher knife, with a thin blade, was found in the bottom of the craft partly concealed. The blade was discolored in many places by corroded spots, which, on examination, were pronounced to be caused by blood. It is now stated by some parties that when Narcies returned to his cabin late Sunday evening he shook out, by accident, from a roll of blankets, a large knife with a long, thick blade, apparently made from a file. These knives both accord perfectly with the character of the wounds as testified to by the physicians which were found on the body of the deceased.

WELL KNOWN ACTOR —By a reference to the passenger list it will be seen that James H Vinson, an old and popular actor with this public, is on his way to this city, and will make his appearance on Saturday evening at Oro Fino Theater, in "Macbeth." Of Mr Vinson's abilities it is needless to remark He is in every sense a true artist, and in his especial line of the profession unsurpassed. In whatever role he may be cast he never fails, never falls below the standard of expectation, and always pleases his audiences, which are the true tests of the artist, and an indispensable element to success and popularity During a protracted visit to this city, extending through nearly three years, Mr. Vinson made many warm friends in Portland His merits as an actor are both acknowledged and appreciated by this public

"SPUD" AGAIN —Several weeks ago "Spud Murphy" was charged in the Police Court with having stolen sundry articles. He was found guilty and sentenced to the county jail for a term of days. A few days ago he was discharged, having honorably served out his term of confinement Saturday he was again arrested on a charge of larceny—his old chronic malady—and is now in jail. It is thought that he has at length stumbled on a crime of sufficient magnitude to send him to making brick again The community ought to unite in the devout hope that such is the case, and by this means be relieved for a brief season from his noxious presence

CLUB MEETING —An adjourned meeting of the Sportsmen's Club was held at the Police Court last Saturday evening. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted On motion Samuel M Smith, Thomas Frazer, Charles Dexter and A B Richardson were admitted to membership The game law as adopted by sections at the last meeting, was read and after several minor amendments had been made, was adopted as a whole. The Club then adjourned until next Saturday evening

FROM VICTORIA —The steamer California arrived Saturday from Victoria and way ports She brought the following passengers Rev P E Hyland, Mrs Dickson and child, Mrs Captain Hayes Miss Hyland, Miss E Taggart, Marie Lairbow, G Mallery T C Jones, C Coulter wife and child M Rowland, Mrs Russell, Mrs Cunningham, Mrs C Mountain, Miss W M P Lacey, Miss L Barry N Kennedy, F Merrion, August Fry, Wm Walker, D Rowland, Stephen Jones and 3 children

NOT HEARD FROM —Nothing as yet has been heard from the special officer who was detailed to arrest the Indian Narcies, implicated in the murder of Bovee The officer left Saturday on the Cascade boat Some trouble may be anticipated in capturing the siwash, as he left one week ago this morning bound for Fort Colville and would probably be some distance on his route before the officer started

EVIDENCE CLOSED —The evidence in the case of United States vs John Lee, in the U S District Court one of the Yaquina parties, indicted for selling liquor to Indians, closed last Saturday The argument of counsel will be heard this morning immediately on the convening of the court after the conclusion of which the case will be submitted to the jury

CUT —While engaged in bottling soda water at the factory last Saturday a boy named Thompson met with a severe accident One of the bottles burst as he was placing in and securing the cork A piece of glass struck the palm of his left hand, inflicting a severe wound A physician was called, extracted the glass and dressed the wound

FOG —A very dense fog bank was off the bar as the steamship California came over from Victoria on the last trip In consequence of it the steamer was detained over eighteen hours No vessels were seen bound either north or out but the fog was so thick that only a little distance could be seen in any direction

THE [illegible] BAPTISM —At the Baptist Church in this city last evening the ordinance of Christian baptism was administered to five persons one gentleman and four ladies by Rev A R Medbury the pastor who preached a very impressive and interesting sermon on the occasion to a large and attentive audience

MISSIONARY CONCERT —The Missionary Concert held yesterday afternoon at the Taylor street M E Church proved a very interesting occasion The exercises were unusually superior in their selection, especially in the rendering of the instrumental and vocal music There was a large attendance

MATERIAL —Forty car wheels and a large number of fish bars are now on the steamship company's wharf awaiting shipment up the Columbia The material belongs to the O S N Co and will be used on the railroad of that company at the Cascades and between the Dalles and Celilo

TO BE IMPRISONED —Jas Barclay who brought suit against Capt Goodale several weeks ago for false imprisonment, was tried last week on the charge of having introduced liquor in an Indian country He was found guilty by the jury, and sentenced Saturday, to one year's imprisonment

SENTENCED —Hoan, who had been tried and found guilty of the crime of smuggling opium, in the U S District Court was sentenced by fine in the Court last Saturday The Court imposed a fine of $100 which the defendant paid, was discharged, and his bondsmen exonerated

PAID AND DISCHARGED —Judge Deady imposed a fine last Saturday of $100 on Chas Lutjen one of the parties indicted and found guilty of having sold whisky to the Indians on the Siletz Reservation The defendant paid the fine and was discharged from custody

FOR "THE HOME" —Class No 11 of the First Presbyterian Church of this city will give a festival for the benefit of the "Home" next Wednesday evening, in the basement of the Church A cordial invitation is extended to all

ON AN EXCURSION —The steamer Geo S Wright left this port last Saturday, having on board a number of excursionists The Wright will proceed to Gray's Harbor and return about Wednesday or Thursday next

SUPREME COURT —The Supreme Court of the State will convene at Salem this morning A number of the attorneys of the city who have business to transact will be in attendance during the continuance of the term

PUBLIC SCHOOLS —The various Public Schools will open this morning for the commencement of the new school year

The Men who Turn d Liberals

[illegible] Massachusetts [illegible] atives of the [illegible] ypes [illegible] here

The [illegible] f Saturd y greet [illegible] car [illegible] uversions to the real [illegible] is J F Farnsworth who [illegible] a district n Congress [illegible] by 14 000 majority [illegible] after r [illegible] down to 500 last election [illegible] though he worked very hard for a nomination that it was not wise to run that risk again and he thinks the mission of the Republican party is at an end Next is Eben C Ingersoll —God save the mark He was so poor when he first came to Washington that he had to raise a subscription to defray the expenses of the campaign yet somehow or other upon the salary of a member of Congress he soon began to ride in a carriage with four horses lived in a magnificent house upon one of the finest streets in Washington and gave splendid entertainments to members of Congress and although his constituents had a majority of four or five thousand in his district the last time he tried them they left him at home by three or four thousand while all the rest of the Republican ticket was elected He thinks the Republican party is dead Another of like mind is Gen W S Stokes of Tennessee who was tried last winter in Washington by jury and convicted of obtaining money out of the Treasury, on forged pension papers He thinks the mission of the Republican party is ended, and so far as he is concerned it is He wants the pension agency, I suppose under the new administration, if Greeley pays the pensions to rebel soldiers Poor fellows! They won t get much of the money if he is sent to disburse it

With these exceptions I know of nobody, whether he be Republican or Democrat, who believes there is no more work to be done Work to be done? Nobody can tell what work is to be done except that while the Republic lasts it can only last by the vigilance and watchfulness of those who enjoy the privileges of self government, and when they cease their solicitude they cease to understand the great and grand idea of self government and then it would be not only that the mission of the Republican party shall have ended, but the mission of self government itself will end also What is to be done? Little do men know, except we know the responsibility of the citizen rests upon us to take care that the Republic receives no harm from its enemies

Portland Legal Tender rates 8 [illegible]c buying 89 selling

The commercial reporter of the Herald charges the Customs officers at this port with obstructing commerce in bringing prosecutions against vessels from foreign ports for carrying more passengers than the law allows There are two points which our neighbor would do well to consider if he would be correct, viz First, the Customs authorities of this port have nothing to do with these cases; the prosecutions are on the information and at the instance of the Collector at Astoria. Second, it is presumable that the Collector at that port is doing no more than the law requires of him If he is his action will not be sustained by the Department or in Court. The Herald's precipitancy has led it into great blunders

A San Francisco paper says Although the award bound fleet shows no increase in numbers for the past two months, it is believed that the very remunerative rates now being paid for Wheat to Liverpool will result ultimately in bringing a large fleet of ships to that port

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co. a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union

All communications strictly confidential

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers, etc The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
